Basketball roundup: Antioch's Kavich stuns Geneva with game-winning 3 at buzzer; Stevenson wins twice

By Dick Quagliano

Antioch showed playing shorthanded was not an issue.

Zach Kavich, making his first start because Antioch was without starters Teddi Wetu (illness) and Marshall Gehke (injury), buried a three-pointer at the buzzer as host Antioch stunned Geneva, 43-42.

It was Kavich's only basket of the game.

Jason Lee and Cooper Marabella led Antioch (7-9) with 9 points each. Geneva fell to 16-3.

Mt. Carmel 67, Rolling Meadows 52: Mt. Carmel got off to a fast start and Rolling Meadows could never catch up Saturday at the Clash of Titans at Glenbrook South in Glenview. Mt. Carmel (17-3) jumped out to a 20-11 first-quarter lead. Lazar Lazarevic had 13 points, Ian Miletic 11 and Jack Duffer 9 points for Meadows (17-3).

Warren 73, Libertyville 47: Warren (12-5, 4-2) turned things around after their last second NSC loss earlier this week to Lake Zurich. Warren was led by Jaxson Davis who had 17 points. Braylon Walker and Jack Wolf each chipped in 13 points while Owen Squires added 10 points. Libertyville fell to 10-7, 2-4.

Lake Zurich 54, Palatine 40: Lake Zurich (10-9) posted another strong performance as Adrain Riep led the way with 18 points. Tyler Olson added
